

The Chartered College of Teaching

Regulations

v.3.0 September 2021

Part I Membership

1. Applications

- 1.1. The procedures for applications for membership shall be set out in the Membership Handbook.

2. Subscriptions and Fees

- 2.1. There shall be an annual subscription payable by all categories of membership according to category, such subscriptions to be determined by Council from time to time and published in the Membership Handbook.
- 2.2. Subject to the provisions of the Membership Handbook, subscriptions run for a period of one year payable annually in advance on the anniversary of the date of admission to that category.
- 2.3. The Council may from time to time establish an administration fee for an application for any category or categories of membership. Any such fee is due before the application is approved and will be collected before the Membership Committee meets to deliberate applications. The administration fee is non-refundable and will not be returned should an application not be successful. The rates of administration fees shall be published in the Membership Handbook.
- 2.4. Subscriptions and fees for upgrades and new admissions are based on the date of admission upon which is the date which the application is approved and not the date upon which an election or upgrade fee is collected.
- 2.5. Subscriptions and fees shall be reviewed annually and members shall be advised in writing as soon as is practicable of any changes in advance of their subscription anniversary.
- 2.6. Holders of honorary membership shall not be liable to pay the annual subscription.
- 2.7. Where a member's subscription payment is not received within three months of the due date his/her membership shall lapse and all services shall be suspended including any right to designatory letters or to be registered as a Chartered Teacher.

3. Resignation

- 3.1. Persons in any category of membership may resign from the College by sending their resignation in writing to the Chief Executive.

4. Criteria for admission to membership

- 4.1. Applicants shall provide such evidence of their achievements and standing as the Council may require.
- 4.2. Individual membership for all categories of membership and institutional membership shall date from the day on which the application for membership is approved by the Chartered College. Entry into a grade of membership is based on the member fulfilling the criteria in force at the time they enter that grade. Subject to payment of subscriptions, members have a right to remain in a grade of membership unless removed for disciplinary reasons. This is not affected by subsequent changes to entry criteria or the status of the member.

- 4.3. Applications for all grades of membership shall be made by means of the official application form which shall be submitted by electronic means.
- 4.4. Where the Membership Committee considers that an applicant for a particular grade of membership does not fully meet the criteria for that grade it may offer membership at a lower grade as an alternative to refusing admission. In the event of an appeal, a panel consisting of three members of the Executive Committee shall consider the appeal and their decision shall be binding.
- 4.5. An individual member wishing to transfer from one category to another shall make application to the Chartered College and such request shall be determined in the same manner as an initial application for the grade that is sought.

5. Eligibility for membership

- 5.1. The Council may, in its discretion, admit to any category of membership or dispense with the eligibility criteria or processes in individual cases.

5.2. Affiliate of The Chartered College of Teaching

- 5.2.1. Affiliates of the Chartered College of Teaching shall:

- 5.2.1.1. be ineligible for Membership or Associateship of the Chartered College; and

- 5.4.1.3. support the aims of the Chartered College.

5.5. Member of The Chartered College of Teaching

- 5.5.1. Members of the Chartered College of Teaching shall:

- 5.5.1.1. hold a degree or equivalent qualification;
- 5.5.1.2. be teachers currently professionally engaged in teaching in an early years setting, school, college or post-sixteen setting; and
- 5.5.1.3. support the aims of the Chartered College.

5.6. Fellow of The Chartered College of Teaching

- 5.6.1. Fellows of the Chartered College of Teaching shall:

- 5.6.1.1. be a senior member of the teaching profession of at least ten years standing;
- 5.6.1.2. have made a significant contribution to the teaching profession or the development of the Chartered College and its aims; and
- 5.6.1.3. support the aims of the Chartered College.

5.7. Honorary Member of The Chartered College of Teaching

- 5.7.1. Honorary Members of the Chartered College of Teaching are persons of distinction nominated by the Council for an outstanding contribution to the Chartered College or its aims.

5.8. Honorary Fellow of The Chartered College of Teaching

5.8.1. Honorary Fellows of the Chartered College of Teaching are persons of distinction nominated by the Council for an outstanding contribution, of national significance, to the Chartered College or its aims.

6. Conduct of Members

- 6.1. Members of The Chartered College of Teaching shall abide by the Code of Conduct, as approved by the Council.
- 6.2. Disciplinary action
 - 6.2.1. A member is guilty of improper conduct if, in the opinion of a Disciplinary Committee, that member:
 - 6.2.1.1. is convicted of an offence which renders him unfit to be a member;
 - 6.2.1.2. has acted in breach of the Code of Conduct; or
 - 6.2.1.3. is precluded from the performance of professional duties in a manner which is consistent with the standards of the profession.
- 6.3. Any complaints or relevant information suggesting improper conduct should be made to either the Chief Executive or his/her delegated representative, who will make the President aware of the complaint or relevant information.
- 6.4. If the President considers a prima facie case has been established, the Disciplinary Committee shall meet to consider all the evidence and determine the resolution.
- 6.5. A member may appeal against the decision of the panel and this Appeal panel shall be chaired by the President, another Honorary Officer and a Member of Council neither of whom have been involved in the original hearing or have any prior knowledge of the matter, who shall consider all the evidence and determine the resolution.
- 6.6. The decision of the Appeal Panel shall be final.

Part II Registration

- 4.1.2. The President shall be an ambassador for the College and the profession.
- 4.1.3. The President shall engage closely with membership.

4.2. President-Elect

- 4.2.1. The President-Elect shall assist the President and, together with the President and Vice-Presidents shall form a Presidential Team ensuring that all the Presidential functions are discharged effectively. The President-Elect shall discharge the office with a view to becoming President in accordance with these Regulations, and shall deputise for the President whenever it is appropriate.

4.3. Vice-Presidents

- 4.3.1. The Vice-Presidents shall assist the President and President-Elect and shall deputise for the President or the President-Elect as required in his or her absence.

4.4. The Treasurer

- 4.4.1. The Treasurer shall be responsible to the Council for:
 - 4.4.1.1. oversight of all receipts and payments made, the recording thereof, and shall have such access as may be required to all records and statements of accounts;
 - 4.4.1.2. presenting annually a budget to the Council, the publication to the members of the final accounts, for informing the Council and the members of the financial position of The College from time to time and at the close of the financial year, and for advising the Council on all matters concerned with finance in consultation with the Chief Executive; and
 - 4.4.1.3. the endorsement of all payments in excess of an amount to be determined by the Council from time to time. In the Treasurer's prolonged absence, the Council may appoint another Honorary Officer to sign in place of the Treasurer.
- 4.4.2. The Treasurer shall chair the meetings of the internal auditors.

5. Officers of the College

5.1. Chief Executive Officer

- 5.1.1. The Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible to the Council for the overall conduct and management of the College.
- 5.1.2. The Chief Executive Officer shall provide leadership to The College and its employees and volunteers through strategic planning, business management, staff management and policy implementation to ensure the viability and future success of The College.
- 5.1.3. The Chief Executive Officer shall be the Returning Officer for all elections other than when the Chief Executive Officer has an interest to declare in which event the Council shall appoint another person to act as Returning Officer.

6. Professors Emeriti and the Professors of Teaching

- 6.1. The Council may establish a Professorial Appointments Board, the membership of which shall be drawn from those of equivalent standing in the higher education sector and who need not be members of Council or The College, to make recommendations to Council on appointments to professorships. The President will chair this Board (or, in the event that the President should be recommended to become a Professor of Teaching, the chair shall be taken by the President-Elect) and shall present the recommendations to the Council.
- 6.2. A Professor of Teaching shall normally be a practising teacher.

7. The Council

- 7.1. The Council shall consist of:
 - 7.1.1. The President;
 - 7.1.2. The President-Elect;
 - 7.1.3. two Vice-Presidents;
 - 7.1.4. The Honorary Treasurer (who shall be a Chartered Accountant);
 - 7.1.5. twelve elected ordinary Council members; and
 - 7.1.6. up to ten ordinary Council members appointed by the Council.
- 7.1.7. The Officers of the Council listed in Regulation 7.1.1 to 7.1.3 above shall be Fellows.
- 7.2. Subject to Regulations 10 and 9.10 the term of office of every elected member of the Council shall be four years, ending at the fourth Annual General Meeting after that person's election.
- 7.3. Meetings of the Council may be held by suitable electronic means in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.
- 7.4. The quorum for a Council meeting shall be one-half of the membership of the Council (not including any vacancies) rounded up to the nearest whole number.

8. Election and Appointment of Officers of the Council

- 8.1. The term of office of the President shall be two years, ending at the Annual General Meeting in each year when elections are not due to be held (except when the

- President-Elect who would have succeeded to the office President at that meeting has already done so due to a vacancy arising in the office of President under Regulation 9.10.
- 8.2. The President-Elect is appointed by the Council, on the recommendation of the Nominations Committee. The President-Elect is normally appointed at the first Council meeting following a vacancy in the office (whether by succession or by any other cause).
 - 8.3. The President-Elect succeeds to the office of President immediately upon the office of President becoming vacant.
 - 8.4. The Vice-Presidents are elected in accordance with Regulation 9.
 - 8.5. The Honorary Treasurer is appointed by the Council on the recommendation of the Nominations Committee.

9. Elections

- 9.1. At the Annual General Meeting in 2021 and every second year thereafter, there shall be an election for every elected position which:
 - 9.1.1. falls vacant due to the expiry of a term of office (an ordinary election); and
 - 9.1.2. has become vacant before that Annual General Meeting for any other reason (a bye-election).
- 9.2. The Council shall make arrangements so that, not less than eight weeks before an AGM when elections are due to be held, any Member or Fellow can stand for election to any position for which he or she is eligible.
- 9.3. The arrangements referred to in Regulation 9.2 above shall be set out on the College's website and shall be open for at least two weeks.
- 9.4. In the case of a contested election for any post, a ballot shall be held.
- 9.5. The ballot or ballots shall open on a date to be decided by the Council, at least four weeks before the Annual General Meeting and shall close on a date to be decided by Council, not more than fourteen days before the Annual General Meeting.
- 9.6. Any ballots required in the case of contested elections shall be carried out in the following order: elected Officers of the Council (in the order set out in Regulation 7.1 above); other elected members of Council, with an ordinary election preceding a bye-election in each case.
- 9.7. If any person gains sufficient votes to be elected in a ballot for one post, that person shall cease to be a candidate in the election for any other post.
- 9.8. Any question arising during the election process which is not answered by the Charter, Bye laws or Regulations shall be determined conclusively by the Returning Officer.
- 9.9. The elections take place at the Annual General Meeting, when the Returning Officer announces the results of the election for each post, including the result of each ballot for a contested election.
- 9.10. Council members shall remain Council members until the expiry of their term of office unless a Council member:
 - 9.10.1. dies;
 - 9.10.2. resigns;
 - 9.10.3. ceases to be a Fellow or Member of the College; or

- 9.10.4. is disqualified by law from holding the office of a charity trustee.
- 9.11. Where a vacancy arises for an elected Council member under Regulation 9.10 above, and that term of office of that Council member is not due to expire at the next Annual General Meeting when elections are due to be held, there shall be a bye-election for that post at that Annual General Meeting. The person elected in a bye-election serves the unexpired portion of the term of office of the person who was originally elected. If there is a bye-election for one or more ordinary Council members, the successful candidate or candidates receiving the lowest number of first preference votes in the election for ordinary Council members shall be deemed to have been elected in the bye-election.
- 9.12. If the vacancy occurs before the date set out in Regulation 9.2, the process for elections set out in Regulations 9.2-9.9 are followed. If the vacancy occurs on or after that date, the arrangements for the bye-election shall be determined by the Council.

10. Transitional Arrangements

- 10.1. The Council shall be constituted as set out in Regulation 7 and 8 from the Annual General Meeting held in 2021, save that, until the Annual General Meeting in 2022:
- 10.1.1. in Regulation 7.1.5, the word “twelve” shall be read as “eighteen”; and
- 10.1.2. in Regulation 7.1.6, the word “ten” shall be read as “four”.
- 10.2. The term of office of the President holding office immediately before the Annual General Meeting in 2021 shall expire at the Annual General Meeting in 2022.
- 10.3. The term of office of the Vice-President (Internal) holding office immediately before the Annual General Meeting in 2021 shall expire at the Annual General Meeting in 2023.

11. Urgent and Efficient Decision Making

- 11.1. Whenever the President, or the Chair of a Committee (in relation to a matter falling within the Terms of Reference of that Committee) considers that:
- 11.1.1. a matter requires an urgent decision, or
- 11.1.2. in the interests of efficiency it would be better for a decision to be made before the next scheduled meeting of the Council or Committee (as the case may be);
- the following procedure may be used to secure a decision without requiring an additional meeting of the Council or that Committee.
- 11.2. A formal proposal is to be drafted including:
- 11.2.1. the reasons why the matter falls within Regulation 11.1;
- 11.2.2. any information that is typically expected to support a similar proposal at a formal meeting;
- 11.2.3. opportunity for the members of the Council or Committee to seek clarification of or ask questions about any points raised;
- 11.2.4. the date and time by which responses need to be received (which is to be at least a full working week from the time the proposals were circulated unless the President or the Chair considers that the matter is sufficiently urgent to justify a shorter timescale).

- 11.3. The Clerk shall distribute the proposal and any supporting documentation to all members of the Council or Committee, normally by e-mail.
- 11.4. Once the date and time set out in Regulation 11.2.4 (or extension thereof) has passed:
 - 11.4.1. if the number of responses is less than 50% of the membership of the Council or Committee, the proposal is not carried, unless the President or Chair extends the time for consideration by setting a new time and date;
 - 11.4.2. if the number of responses is 50% or more of the membership of the Council or Committee and more than 50% of the members are in favour of the proposal, it is carried, otherwise it is not carried.
 - 11.4.3. The Clerk shall record whether or not the proposal is carried.
- 11.5. Any proposal made under this Regulation, and the decision made in respect of it, shall be reported formally to the next meeting of the Council or Committee and clearly recorded in the minutes
